tained we still lacked about twenty-five men to fill our quota.

On motion of Mr. Cunningham, it was resolved to borrow the sum of $1,250.00 to be raised on a joint note, signed by citizens of the town, in order to pay each volunteer $50.00. Benjamin P. Burhans agreed to furnish the money on such note.

The following note was then drawn up.

We jointly and severally for value received, promise to pay to B. P. Burhans or bearer, twelve hundred and fifty dollars, with annual interest, to be paid as follows: One-half of the above sum with annual interest to be paid on the 15th day of February, 1864, the remainder of said twelve hundred and fifty dollars and annual interest to be paid on the 15th day of February, 1865.

Dated Warrensburgh, August 18, 1862.

Signed by JOSEPH WOODWARD and thirty-six other citizens.

On motion a subscription was circulated among the young men who were not taxpayers, to raise money to defray the expense of recruiting and procuring volunteers.

Henry Griffing and Daniel B. Howard were appointed a committee to collect the money thus subscribed.

Henry Griffing was elected Treasurer to receive the money and pay it to the War Committee.

Thomas Cunningham, Esq., Supervisor, by virtue of his office, was Chairman of the War Committee. The following gentlemen were chosen for such committee:

Fred O. Burhans	George Richards
Stephen Griffin, 2nd.	Hiram McNutt

the field, and in case each State did not furnish its quota under this call, a draft would be made from such State for the deficiency on the 5th day of January, 1864.

The time for the above draft was postponed from time to time, the National Bounties being continued, and volunteering went on slowly.

On the 12th day of December, 1863, a meeting of the Citizens and Taxpayers of the Town of Warrensburgh was held at the home of Lewis Persons for the purpose of devising a plan to raise the quota of men called for under the above call of the President October 17, 1863, which the town had to fill to avoid the draft of January 5, 1864. Duncan Griffin, Supervisor, took the chair; Fred O. Burhans was elected Secretary.

The Chairman then briefly stated the object of the meeting and that the quota for the town to fill was twenty-two men or thereabout as near as could be ascertained. After a general discussion and interchange of views, it was finally

Resolved, That the Supervisor be authorized to borrow the sum of $5,000 on a town note for the purpose of paying bounties to volunteers to fill the quota of the town and report at next meeting.

Resolved, That the War Committee is authorized to pay each volunteer the sum of $300 on proof being given that they are credited to this town. The Chairman then appointed the following named gentlemen to assist him in raising the men:

Stephen Griffin, 2nd.	Joseph Woodward.
George Richards.	E. W. Howard.
Fred O. Burhans,

Thos. Cunningham then said it might be well to state here that the amount of money, $5,000, was not enough to pay twenty-two men $300 each, but the War Committee were expecting to get credit for the nine men excess furnished in August, 1862, and might perhaps find more men to our credit who had enlisted at other points.

No other business appearing the meeting adjourned to meet at the same place December 16, 1863.

On the 1st day of February, 1864, President Lincoln ordered a draft for 500,000 men—draft to take place on the 10th of March, 1864. This draft includes the call of Oct. 17, 1863 for 300,000 men together with 200,000 additional. A Committee meeting held at Mr. Cunningham's office on the 4th of March, 1864. Thos. Fred O. Burhans was appointed an associate with Mr. Cunningham. It was suggested that Duncan Griffin should go with the committee to Albany to assist in looking over the Muster Rolls, as he had been there before on a county committee on similar business. Adjourned.

Mr. Cunningham reported what the committee that went to Albany to look after the credits had done, which was substantially as follows: They had examined the Muster Rolls of all the companies into which any of the men from this town had enlisted so far as they knew of. They were unable to get credits for the surplus 9 men claimed for 1862. They procured certificates of credits of all they could from the Adjutant General's Office.

On motion Fred O. Burhans was appointed a committee to enlist 7 men and he was also instructed to get the $10.00 on new recruits and $15.00 on veterans government bounty, as far as practicable and to use the same for recruiting purposes. Adjourned.

At a meeting of Citizens and Taxpayers of the Town of Warrensburgh on the 25th day of March, 1864, at the house of Lewis Persons, to consider the propriety of raising an additional sum of money to fill the quota of men required from this town under the last calls of the President of the United States. FRED O. BURHANS, Treas., War Com.

WARRENSBURGH, May 1, 1864.

On the 18th day of July, 1864, President Lincoln called for 500,000 volunteers, for the respective terms of 1, 2 and 3 years' service and it was ordered that if the men were not furnished by the 5th day of September, 1864, a draft would be made to fill any deficiency that might be in any city, town or ward.

The town clerk soon after this call made a call for a special town meeting, which was held on the 9th day of August, 1864, at the house of Duncan Griffin, to raise $8,000 to pay volunteers to fill the quota of the town, under the call of the President of the United States for 500,000 men. The whole number of votes cast was seventy-five and the number of votes cast for raising $8,000 was 63, whole number cast against raising $8,000 was 12. On motion it was

Resolved, That the Board of Town Auditors of town of Warrensburgh be and they are hereby empowered and authorized, pursuant to Sec. 22, Chapter 8, Laws of 1864, to raise such sums as they may deem necessary, not exceeding $8,000 upon the credit of said town for the sole use of said town in paying bounties to volunteers and to persons furnishing substitutes and to all persons who shall enter the military service of the United States and be credited toward the filling of the quota of said town and for paying the incidental expenses of such volunteering and of raising such money, and that such sums be raised and any part thereof as may be deemed necessary, upon the negotiations and sale of bonds to be issued by said Board of Town Auditors in the name of said Town, such bonds shall not bear more than 7% interest and the same shall not be negotiated less than par.

On motion it was Resolved, That the following committee is hereby appointed, to wit: Thomas Cunningham, Fred O. Burhans, Hiram McNutt, Samuel T. Richards and Henry Herrick, whose duty shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow said money upon the bonds aforesaid and to disburse the same, to fix the amount of said bounties, to make all proper effort in filling the quota of said town and to use wise and proper discretion in effecting the object of their said appointment and to report to the Board of Town Auditors at their annual meeting.

Resolved, That the said bonds shall be made payable at the Supervisor's office of said town on the 1st day of Feb., 1865, with interest, to wit:

One-half of the amount aforesaid voted to be raised, i.e., $4,000 or any part of the said one-half so used as aforesaid, the balance so used over and above the said one-half, be made payable at the same place with interest on the 1st day of Feb., 1866.

HENRY HERRICK,
Town Clerk.

The Committee appointed at the foregoing Town meeting, at once entered upon their duties and used their best endeavors to procure volunteers for three years and their efforts might have been crowned with success had not the neighboring towns and counties raised their bounties larger than the committee felt they could, without further instructions from taxpayers in the town and 5, 6, 7 and 900 dollars were being offered for volunteers to serve for one year. The Committee had offered $300 for three years and had procured some volunteers with the understanding that if the town should pay any more under this call, such volunteers should receive the same. The time for the approaching draft was drawing near, the young men, or a few of them, began to feel a desire to travel and see more of the world than was located in Warren County, but not caring to go south generally took the opposite course on the compass and in a very short space of time their friends had the pleasure of hearing from them in a country called Canada, on the other side of the River St. Lawrence and they told such wonderful stories, how the people there received their wages in gold and silver and how they traded with the same precious metals, which by the way was not at all plenty in the County of Warren, and greenbacks were looked upon by the Canadians, much as Paul was regarded by the Athenians, with suspicion. By such representations and not being able to pay over $300 bounty, the committee, nearly disheartened, concluded to request the town clerk to call another special town meeting and lay the matter again before the taxpayers and citizens. Accordingly on the 29th of August, 1864 (see town book), a special town meeting was held at the house of Duncan Griffin. Thomas Cunningham addressed the people, telling them how the committee was situated and what the prospect was for obtaining volunteers. The meeting was called to vote on the question whether the town would vote an additional sum of $12,000 or not. The whole number of votes cast was 158, the whole number for raising $12,000 was 149 and the number against raising $12,000 was 9.

Resolved, That the money $12,000 voted this day to be raised shall be made payable as follows, to wit:

In three equal installments, in February, 1867, 1868, 1869, and the interest paid on the whole amount annually.

Resolved, That the town pay a bounty of $800 to each person credited to the town under the last call of the President for 500,000 men.

HENRY HERRICK,
Town Clerk.

The War Committee then enlisted the following named men: and instructed the Treasurer to prepare town bonds and procure money on same and pay to each man $800 after enlisting and having been mustered in the United States service for a period of one year.

Hiram E. Gebo substitute for Henry Herrick.
Benjamin Cilley substitute for Henry Griffing.
Thornton Robliert substitute for Thomas Chadwick.
Marshall L. Brown representative for S. T. Richards.
Total 24 men.

These 24 men all received from the town $800 each, with the exception of the following who received more, Myron A. Duell received $900 for this reason, the committee had been told by persons not liable to the draft, that they would give $100 to have a representative put into the service for them, thus making a greater inducement for a man to go and consequently the committee offered Duell the extra money, but as the arrangement about representatives was not completed, the committee had to pay the extra money. James W. Middleton and Orlin Smith also received $900 each, they both had enlisted for the $300 bounty and then went to Washington County, where they were to get $900. The committee had to take them at that price to fill the quota, as no more time could be spent in looking up recruits, as the time for the draft had come and men were worth $1,000 then.

Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of Warren County.

A special committee consisting of Messrs. A. J. Cheritree and Thos. Cunningham, appointed by the Board at their special meeting on the 22nd day of December, 1863, to obtain the adjustment of credits of persons to the different towns in which they resided, and who volunteered in the Second Veteran Cavalry, and stood credited to the town of Queensbury, reported, and which report was accepted and committee discharged, and the report is on file.

Report to the Board of Supervisors of the County of Warren.

On the 22nd day of December, 1863, at a special meeting of this Board for the purpose of ascertaining the actual residence of the several men from said county who had enlisted in the Second Veteran Cavalry of New York, and to take measures to obtain proper credits for the several towns, Duncan Griffin and A. J. Cheritree were appointed a committee to carry out the objects of such meeting.

It appeared that a large number of men, exceeding two hundred, had, between the 7th day of July, 1863, and the meeting of said Board, enlisted in the regiment aforesaid, and that such enlistments were all made at Glens Falls, and the enlistment papers being sworn to at Queensbury, and the actual residence of the men not given therein, the town of Queensbury stood upon the books at the Adjutant General's office credited with the whole number, when, in fact, the other towns were entitled to several of them. It was arranged and agreed upon among the several members of this Board as to the actual residence of the men, and a certificate to that effect made by the Board allowing to each town the men belonging thereto.

With this certificate the committee, after conferring with the war committee at Glens Falls, proceeded to Albany about the 25th day of December, 1863. Upon an interview with the Adjutant General and a presentation of the proceedings of the Board, the committee were informed that although it seemed just that those proceedings should be adopted and the credits made as therein requested, yet that he had no power or authority to go back to the enlistment papers and change credits, but referred us to the Assistant Provost Marshal, Major Townsend.

After some delay, your committee obtained an interview with him, and after a presentation of the papers were informed that a special commission had been appointed by the Provost Marshal General, viz., Major Townsend and Governor Seymour, to regulate the credits, and that the credits would certainly be made as agreed upon by the Board, but that they could not act upon the matter till after the 1st of January, 1864, and requested us to hold the papers until we received notice of the time and manner of making such credits. The committee, thus encouraged, returned home.

After waiting some time after the first of January, 1864, and hearing nothing upon the subject, one of the committee, A. J. Cheritree, again proceeded to Albany, and on the second day obtained another interview with Major Townsend, and was informed that it was too late to then change credits, and that they could not go back to the enlisted papers. Upon referring the Major, however, to his previous declaration and promise, he promised to counsel the Provost Marshal General and act accordingly. Thus it continued for some time, changing positions and doing nothing until the committee became about disheartened—other interviews having been had at different times with about the same result.

Finally, the committee hearing that Saratoga county, which was placed in a similar position to this county, had, through their committee, obtained their credits at Washington; and having learned from Mr. Cunningham that he had had an interview with Major Townsend, and that a report from Provost Marshal Clendon of our district sanctioning the proceedings of this Board would be sufficient authority for him to allow our credits—Mr. Cunningham, having, in the meantime, been substituted as one of the committee in place of Duncan Griffin,—proceeded once more to Albany with the proceedings of the Board sanctioned by report of Captain Clendon, and accompanied with affidavits, and laid them before Major Townsend, and was informed by him that he had no power to change the credits, but advised the committee to go to Washington personally and lay the matter before the Provost Marshal General, which the committee deemed not advisable, but by a written communication did appeal to him, and addressed communications to our representative, Mr. Kellogg, and obtained a promise from Major Townsend that he would sanction the proceedings of the Board, and favorably therein to his superior. The committee having for so long time experienced the effects of " red tape " returned home with faint hearts, but were rejoiced to afterwards learn, after a long delay, and almost at the latest possible moment before the draft took place, that justice had been done and the credits allowed. In this adjustment Luzerne received credit for 12 men, Caldwell 5, Thurman 2, Stony Creek 2, Johnsburgh 1, and Warrensburgh 5. Many other men had been enlisted in these towns instead of Queensbury, as appeared from the records in the Adjutant General's office at Albany.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. J. CHERITREE,
THOS. CUNNINGHAM,
Committee.

On motion, the Board adjourned to meet November 17th.
